I'm truly grateful for the donated stethoscope that we receive. I felt honored to be welcomed into the community with such a gift on my first day at ACHE.

"OTs help make life's activities more accessible. Our typical workday could include helping people shower, do messy crafts, or even cook! Scrubs allow us to be comfortable and professional while working alongside our clients."

Arkansas Colleges of Health Education

Dear Friend,

As a new class of students arrives from across the country to begin their journey in our doctoral programs, they step forward with a shared commitment to serve and improve the lives of others.

A stethoscope or set of scrubs may seem simple, but to our students, these gifts represent encouragement and the start of a meaningful path in healthcare. We invite you to join us this year in making a lasting first impression. Your generosity continues to inspire and uplift the next generation of healthcare leaders!

With gratitude,

Jarred Rego
