Disclaimer: The Estimated Standard Cost of Attendance sets a limit on the total amount of aid a student may receive for educational expenses. Students are expected to budget accordingly to stay within this for the year. Educational expenses include direct costs that are charged by the institution for tuition, fees, housing and indirect costs the average student may pay out-of-pocket for books/supplies, board and miscellaneous expenses. Educational expenses do not include costs for: relocation, deposits, credit card debt, consumer debt, spousal expenses, vehicle purchase/rental or during non-attendance. In rare circumstances, a student may request an approval for a modest increase through the Office of Financial Aid, but not all requests will be approved. Generally, requests are related to child-care expenses, a one-time computer/educational device purchase, unexpected medical expenses, or major car repairs while a student. The Estimated Standard Cost of Attendance is subject to change without notice.
