

GRADUATE MINORITY SCHOLARSHIPS

Below are external scholarship opportunities specific to minority students pursuing graduate degrees. Additional resources can be found on the Scholarship webpage.

American Indian College Fund

The American Indian College Fund provides scholarships to American Indian and Alaska Native college students seeking undergraduate and graduate degrees at tribal colleges, nonprofit, and accredited schools.

American Indian Education Foundation

Partnership with Native Americans provides scholarships to undergraduate and graduate Native American students.

American Indian Science and Engineering Society

The American Indian Science and Engineering Society (AISES) provides a wide range of programs and scholarship opportunities for AISES members.

Association of American Indian Affairs

The Association on American Indian Affairs offers scholarships for graduate students. Applications typically are accepted twice a year.

Cobell Scholarship

The Cobell Scholarship is available to enrolled members of a U.S. Federal-recognized Tribe. Applications typically open December 15th.

Native Forward Scholars Fund

Students can use this scholarship finder to search for scholarships by level of education, area of study and scholarship type.

Hispanic Scholarship Fund

Hispanic American students may be eligible to apply for scholarships and support services based upon their merit and relative need. Applications typically open from January to March.

Paul & Daisy Soros Fellowships

The Paul & Daisy Soros Fellowships for New Americans program is intended for immigrants and children of immigrants in the United States.

United Negro College Fund

Students may be eligible to apply for scholarships through the United Negro College Fund (UNCF).